

Motion

FOMO vs JOMO

(Fear of missing out/Joy of missing out)

Today's Agenda

- 1 Affirmative Constructive Speech: 1 and 2
- 2 Cross Examination after the Affirmative
- 3 Negative Constructive Speech: 1 and 2
- 4 Cross Examination after the Negative
- 5 Negative Closing Statement 1 and 2
- 6 Affirmative Closing Statement 1 and 2

Next time between 4 and 5: Negative Rebuttal and Affirmative Rebuttal

Ballot

Point System. Each team will get 1 point for each:

1. Relevance – speaking to the topic, using strong and persuasive arguments.
2. Critical thinking – material should be reliable.
3. Analytical approach – logical and consistent presentation.
4. Engaging of all members in the debate.
5. Fluency.
6. Vocabulary – usage of C-level vocabulary
7. Non-verbal communication.

Let's begin!

Are you ready?

Affirmative Constructive Speech

Judges generally score the speakers looking at this criteria:

1. Content / Matter – What the debaters say, their arguments and evidence, the relevance of their arguments.
2. Style / Manner – How the debaters speak, including the verbal and non-verbal language.
3. Strategy / Method – The structure of the speech, the clarity and responding to other's arguments.

Cross- Questioning Affirmative

Judges generally score the speakers looking at this criteria:

1. Content / Matter – What the debaters say, their arguments and evidence, the relevance of their arguments.

2. Style / Manner – How the debaters speak, including the verbal and non-verbal language.

3. Strategy / Method – The structure of the speech, the clarity and responding to other's arguments.

Negative Constructive Speech

Judges generally score the speakers looking at this criteria:

1. Content / Matter – What the debaters say, their arguments and evidence, the relevance of their arguments.

2. Style / Manner – How the debaters speak, including the verbal and non-verbal language.

3. Strategy / Method – The structure of the speech, the clarity and responding to other's arguments.

Cross- Questioning Negative

Judges generally score the speakers looking at this criteria:

1. Content / Matter – What the debaters say, their arguments and evidence, the relevance of their arguments.

2. Style / Manner – How the debaters speak, including the verbal and non-verbal language.

3. Strategy / Method – The structure of the speech, the clarity and responding to other's arguments.

Negative Closing Statement

Judges generally score the speakers looking at this criteria:

1. Content / Matter – What the debaters say, their arguments and evidence, the relevance of their arguments.

2. Style / Manner – How the debaters speak, including the verbal and non-verbal language.

3. Strategy / Method – The structure of the speech, the clarity and responding to other's arguments.

Affirmative Closing Statement

Judges generally score the speakers looking at this criteria:

1. Content / Matter – What the debaters say, their arguments and evidence, the relevance of their arguments.

2. Style / Manner – How the debaters speak, including the verbal and non-verbal language.

3. Strategy / Method – The structure of the speech, the clarity and responding to other's arguments.

Thank you!

Have a great day ahead.

